The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

The 25th Assembly district candidate for the Democratic party was decided by the flip of a coin, almost.

At Saturday's convention BOB LEVY of Burlingame appeared to have the endorsement of the party in the bag with 44 votes, while THOMAS JENKINS of Broadmoor and HOWARD HARTLEY, deputy district attorney, trailed with 20 and 25 delegates, respectively.

Jenkins and Hartley did not want to see Levy prevail, so agreed that one would turn over his votes to the other, which would give one of them a 45-44 edge over Levy.

They decided to toss a coin to see who would get the endorsement, and Jenkins won.

But at the last minute, Jenkins had a change of heart, and asked his delegates to cast their ballots for Hartley.

Truck Driver Is Charged With Statutory Rape

Statutory rape charges have been filed against a 19-year-old San Francisco youth who allegedly accosted his 14-year-old date at a Colma residence on February 18.

Ray Farrell, a truck driver who is on probation from Texas for auto theft, was arraigned on the charge this week in municipal court.

He was arrested on complaint by the victim's mother, a San Francisco woman.

Broadmoor police said Farrell accosted the teen-age girl on the morning of February 18, after the pair had returned to the Colma home with its occupant, the girl who had double-dated with them.

The 14-year-old girl's mother had reported her daughter's absence to San Francisco police at 7 p.m. the day before the alleged rape.

When the girl returned home about 3 a.m. in a disheveled condition, the mother contacted San Francisco police, who later notified Broadmoor authorities.

Farrell's bail was set at $2500 cash, $5000 bond.

$10,000 STILL NOT TRANSFERRED AS TEMPEST SUBSIDES

The tempest over transfer of $10,000 from one fund to another in the city water department abated this week, but with the election only a month away it was undoubtedly continue to be a major issue.

Two weeks ago City Treasurer Paul Selmi, who branded the transfer "illegal," said he would sign the warrant making the transfer if City Auditor Robert Hunter would send him a letter detailing what the expenditures were for in the transfer.

Having received the letter last week, Selmi promptly issued the statement that, "It wasn't what I asked for. It was just a lot of double talk."

Selmi cancelled the original warrant, and a second one calling for the transfer has not yet been re-issued.

Fireworks will probably start when the new warrant is issued and Selmi fails to sign it, which is apparently his plan of action.

The council has threatened legal action against Selmi if he fails to sign the warrant.

Hunter, in answer to Selmi's statement that his letter was "double talk," said, "I gave Selmi a full, complete report on the items in the transfer. It is my job merely to recommend proper accounting procedure."

The council is awaiting a letter from Ernie Wilson of the legal firm of Kirkbride & Wilson on the legality of the fund transfer. The firm, which served as consultants to Daly City on the sale of the water revenue bonds, had said earlier that the transfer was completely proper.

OK Higher Salaries For Two Rec Jobs

Two jobs were re-classified to higher salary ranges by the Daly City recreation commission Tuesday night.

Position of building and playground supervisor, formerly paying a salary range of $310 to $376, was raised to a range of $341 to $415, while the park supervisor post, formerly a $200 a month part-time job, was made full-time at a range of $358 to $436. August Conci holds the latter job, while Joe Bloom is building and playground supervisor.

The commission set March 29 for the annual Easter Egg Hunt, while the Spring Festival was scheduled for either April 29 or May 6. It was suggested that (Continued on Page 2)

JOHN FERRARI (seated, second from right), surrounded by co-workers, was honored Wednesday night at a testimonial dinner at the Italian American club. Now employed as manager of the Colma branch of the Bank of America, Ferrari is a veteran of 35 years in banking institutions. He is fondly known as the "Godfather of Colma." Over 250 persons honored Ferrari at the dinner. Judge Thomas L. Bocci served as master of ceremonies, while chairman of the event was A. G. Lucetti, the bank's assistant manager (seated next to Ferrari). THE RECORD photo

TWO FIRMS SCRAMBLE FOR TAXI PERMITS HERE; HEARINGS SET

Daly City's status as a "one taxi-cab" town may be over, if either of two applicants are granted permit to operate here.

Public hearing was held Monday night before the city council on application of George Mountanos, 757 Beechwood drive, to establish the Westlake Taxi Co. On the same evening, the council received an application for permit to operate taxis here from Yellow Cab Co. Both applications will come up again at the March 19 council meeting.

Nicholas Barbarotto, attorney representing Mountanos, declared the necessity for a second cab company in Daly City was "obvious."

At present the Hilltop Cab Co. is the sole taxi firm here, operating five cabs. George Kirchhubel, bitter foe of the council, is one of the owners of Hilltop Cab. Gives Statistics

Barbarotto related statistics showing that throughout San Mateo county there is one cab for every 2500 persons, while in Daly City the figure is one for every 6000.

"Granting permit for Mr. Mountanos' company will alleviate this condition," Barbarotto claimed.

Of a different opinion, however, was Attorney John Putkey, representing Hilltop Cab, who said, "An applicant for permit must show need. There has been absolutely no showing of need. The applicant is using the council to carry out negotiations already made for a business at 189 Southgate avenue."

Putkey declared that "The council should not give service to one particular place, but the entire city. Hilltop Cab serves all of Daly City and can reach any location in town in three or four minutes. There is no need for additional cabs."

Cites Wages

Putkey said the average annual wage for Hilltop Cab Co. drivers was $3900. "The fares just aren't available," he opined.

Mayor Joseph Verducci then revealed that the council had on hand another application — from Yellow Cab Co.

The hearing on Mountanos' application was continued to March 19, while the hearing on Yellow Cab's request will open the same night.

May File Recall Petitions With City Clerk On Monday

SPECIAL DC CENSUS COUNT IS APPROVED

City Manager Howard Stites was given authorization Monday night by the council to request a special federal census for Daly City.

The matter came up when Councilman Sanford Vickers suggested that some type of survey should be conducted to determine the present population in order to qualify Daly City for additional state subventions.

Stites said that inasmuch as San Bruno and South San Francisco were asking for special censuses, he thought it advisable that a census be taken here at the same time. The manager estimated it would take six months to get the federal bureau of census to come into this area.

Stites said the city would recover "five times as much" back in the first year from state subventions over the cost of the census, which is estimated at between $3500 and $4000.

"We should get an additional $30,000 the first year," the manager declared.

In 1954 a special census showed Daly City's population at 23,951. Since that time, officials estimate the population has risen to close to 30,000. State subventions to cities from motor vehicle in lieu tax and gas tax funds are based on the actual census count.

Civil Service Board Extend Examination Application Period

The deadline for applying for the civil service examination for equipment operators was extended until next Wednesday at the Civil Service board meeting February 23. The examination was originally scheduled to be given last Wednesday.

This decision was made after City Manager Howard Stites announced that only two city employees had qualified for the original examination. It was then decided to re-open the exam to application and to re-advertise it.

The new examination, which will be of the open competitive type, will be held March 14.

In other action the board:

1. Approved a senior librarian for the city.
2. Changed meeting time for the board to the third Wednesday of each month at 4 p.m.
3. Decided, at the suggestion of chairman Harry Bosberry, to post all future bulletins at King's market.

RPOA TO PRESS FOR STATE FLOOD FUNDS

Broadmoor Property Owners association will continue investigating the possibility of obtaining state funds for flood control at their regular meeting next Thursday night.

President Jack Baker said the board will contact Supervisor Thomas Callan Sr. of Colma and inquire about applying for $75,000 for a major storm drain.

In an appearance before the state board of water resources, February 2, Callan's request for federal funds for flood relief in the north county was turned down.

STREET PATCHING PROGRAM LAUNCHED

City Engineer Cyril Weiler reported to the city council Monday night that a street improvement program has been launched.

Weiler also called on citizens to contact the engineering department to point out specific areas which need attention.

"If people will refer to us these bad conditions, it will help us in our work," Weiler said.

JAMES MCKAY
... The Demo Choice

McKay Wins Demo Endorsement For Congressional Post

Attorney James T. McKay of Broadmoor won the overwhelming endorsement for San Mateo County congressman at the county Democratic endorsing convention last Saturday in Burlingame along with W. Howard Hartley of Hillsborough, 25th assembly district; Harold G. Robinson of Burlingame, state senator and Alan Baldwin of Redwood City, 26th assembly district.

McKay, now a tax editor and vice chairman of the county Democratic central committee, defeated Alan Eisan of Sharp Park in the balloting for congressman. McKay resides with his wife and two children at 1199 Nimitz drive and has been a resident of Broadmoor for eight years. He is 43, a director of the United Crusade and Broadmoor Property Owners association. He held a law degree from Syracuse university.

Hartley, 38, is the chief criminal deputy for District Attorney Keith Sorenson. He is a resident of Hillsborough and has served 14 years as an FBI agent and then in the district attorney's office.

The North End Democratic club played a vital role in Hartley's nomination. The withdrawal of Attorney Thomas Jenkins of Broadmoor from the assembly race and the throwing of his support to Hartley is credited with Hartley's defeat of Robert Levy, Burlingame restaurant owner. On the first ballot, Levy had 44 votes; Hartley, 25; Jenkins, 20 and George Mason, Linda Mar attorney, 6. Jenkins received 18 of his 20 votes (Continued on Page 2)

PINBALL PROBLEM NOT TOO BAD HERE

Daly City police chief said this Thursday that he wouldn't say one way or another whether he favored a ban on pinball machines in Daly City until a more thorough investigation had been conducted to see how much trouble they are actually causing.

The county board of supervisors said at their meeting Wednesday that they would ban pinball machines for the county if half of the cities of the county would ban them first.

Pinball machines in Daly City are legal provided they are licensed by the city and the owners do not pay cash to winners. Persons found guilty of paying off may be penalized by a fine of not more than $100 or not more than 60 days in jail or both.

Petrocchi said that the pinball problem has not caused too much trouble here so far. He said that the machines are operated and supervised by the owners pretty well. Police supervision is concentrated on a few places with records of past violations or suspected of violations.

The owner of the Spud-Nut coffee shop, 6714 Mission street, was arrested February 21 after a local officer said he saw him pay off a customer playing a pinball machine.

Petitions to force an election to recall three Daly City councilmen will be filed Monday if today's count shows sufficient number of signatures, according to City Treasurer Paul Selmi, leader of the movement.

Selmi claims that last Thursday's check showed a total of 911 names and estimated that the recall group would reach their goal of 1081 signatures by today if the fair weather continues.

Question of whether the 1081 figure is correct is under study by City Clerk B. C. Ross. County sources said that signups must equal 1081 or 12 per cent of the 9011 voters registered on January 12 when the petition notice was published.

If, however, Ross finds that the 12 per cent must be applied to the number of registered voters eligible to cast ballots in the city election April 10, required signatures will jump to 1312.

By filing the petitions Monday, Selmi hopes to have the issue placed on the April city election ballot he said.

Selmi declared that the group has "enough finances to get by" but did not disclose the exact amount. Last week he stated that the organization had about $400 in the coffers.

Objects of the recall are Councilmen Sanford Vickers, Michael De Bernardi and Del Wilson.

SEWAGE 'PROBLEM' AT WESTLAKE IS CITED BY BODIEN

Arthur Bodien, one of the leaders of the Better Government Group which seeks to recall three councilmen, fired another verbal shot at the officials Monday night.

Bodien, former water department superintendent here, asked why raw sewage from the new Westlake clubhouse was allowed to flow directly into the ocean instead of being first processed in the sewage treatment plant.

"Four years ago the north end wanted a $650,000 disposal plant," Bodien said. "The plant is now in use. I would like to know where the sewage from the Westlake clubhouse is going."

The council first said Bodien's question should be directed to the North San Mateo County Sanitation district, which has jurisdiction over the treatment plant. But City Manager Howard Stites volunteered that, "Bodien is inferring the bypass is bad. Until that area is fully developed, the sewage is going into the ocean outfall line. It's only a very small quantity. All of the sewage from the Crocker area flows directly to the ocean."

Bodien claimed that sewage from the Crocker area flowed to San Francisco and was then routed to the sewage plant for treatment, but Stites denied this with an emphatic, "No."

Stites explained that the cost of pumping the small amount of sewage from the Westlake clubhouse to the treatment plant would be prohibitive at present.

36 Polling Places For April 10 City Election

A record 36 consolidated precincts will be open at the municipal election April 10 to handle the increase in registered voters and to make the polls more accessible. At the last regular election, there were 19 precincts.

In passing the notice of election Monday night, the council established voting hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m., which means polls will be open one hour later than they have been in the past.

Four officers, one inspector and three clerks, will man each polling place.

Cost of establishing the extra polling places this year is estimated at $1000.

Robinson, chief criminal deputy for Attorney General Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, was the convention's unanimous choice for state senator. He has been a leading "crime buster" for many years serving as chief counsel on the Truman and Kefauver committees and on the state attorney general's staff since 1951. A resident of Burlingame for seven years, he is 54.

Writers Cramp Faces "Drag" Race Fans

Two youths with a penchant for "drag" racing their automobiles will probably think twice before trying it again.

Aldo Bacigalupo, 19, of 722 Niantic avenue, and Aubrey Cummings, 20, of Hamilton AFB, were arrested by Broadmoor police February 12 for competing in a drag race on El Camino Real in Colma. They reached speeds up to 75 mph, according to police.

Appearing before Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court last week, the two drivers received the following sentence: Each one must write 10,000 times, "I will obey all traffic laws."

They have until the middle of March to complete the chore.

Local Cop Captures Escapee, 15, From SF Guidance Center

A 15-year-old escapee from the San Francisco youth guidance center was captured here Wednesday morning by Daly City Police Officer Philip La Bruzzo.

Police said the youth was at Mission Emergency hospital for treatment of injuries suffered in a brawl at the guidance center Tuesday night. While waiting in the hospital corridor, the boy disappeared.

La Bruzzo first spotted the youth with two companions in a car on Morningside drive at 8 a.m. Thinking the boys looked suspicious, La Bruzzo stopped. A check showed the identity of the escapee, police said.

The youth was turned over to San Francisco police.

PLANS DRAWN FOR FRANKLIN REPAIR

Temporary siding has been put up and plans have been drawn for permanent repairs of damage done when a steam boiler exploded at Benjamin Franklin elementary school February 20, according to David Shapiro, business manager for the Jefferson elementary school district.

The boiler equipment itself was put in working order soon after the explosion occurred. Cost of repairing the walls and other damaged materials was fixed at approximately $5000. The force of the explosion resulted in excessive damage to the structure of the walls and roof.

Vases Worth $400 Stolen At Cemetery

Colma police and sheriff's deputies are looking for a man who stole $400 worth of bronze flower vases from the Holy Cross cemetery mausoleum and sold them to a San Bruno waste materials company for $70.

Holy Cross officials said that 158 vases were stolen from the flower arrangement room. They were located at a San Bruno junk dealers and returned to the cemetery.

Jefferson High Girl Receives Art Award

Jacqueline Derner, Jefferson high school student, was among the three San Mateo county students who were presented scholastic art awards Saturday in San Francisco for their prize winning entries in a contest sponsored by the Emporium.

More than 400 public, private and parochial schools from the Oregon border to Fresno participated in the contest. The works of the winners will be judged this summer at the Carnegie institute in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Jefferson Tankmen Lose To Washington

Jefferson high school's thirty-three swimmers won a three division practice swimming meet with George Washington high school of San Francisco last week in the Indian pool. It was the first meet of the season for Jeff.

Dick Raser chalked up firsts in the 100-yard breaststroke and the individual medley as the thirty-three took a 43 1/2-22 1/2 win from the Eagles. His time was 1:13.8 in the breaststroke, and 48.7 in the medley.

Bob Galindo turned in a 2:24.4 in the 200-yd. freestyle for the Indians' only first in the varsity division, where they dropped a 50-27 verdict. Washington also won the twenties competition, 27-21.

Tafuya, 31.6 in the 50 freestyle; Curry, 43.0 in the 50 breaststroke and Carpenter, 35.6 in the 50 backstroke, were the first place winners for the Jeff 20s.

The Indians met San Mateo this Thursday in the Jeff pool after THE RECORD went to press. Results will be given next week.

Brisbane Man Pleads Guilty To 2-Year-Old Bum Check Charge

A 40-year-old Brisbane man will be sentenced this Friday after pleading guilty Thursday to a charge of passing a bum check

Stolen Car Crashes Through Junipero Serra Guard Rail

A 25-year-old bank messenger was being held in San Francisco today on charges of crashing a stolen auto against a guard rail on Junipero Serra boulevard early Wednesday morning.

Officers from the highway patrol and Daly City and Broadmoor police departments responded to the scene of the accident just south of the Colonial drive-in. Driver of the auto had fled before officer's arrival.

After an hour's search, police found Michael Ramon Gonzales of San Francisco in the shrubbery near the Christen Dairy ranch road. Meanwhile a check to San Francisco showed that the wrecked auto had been stolen from a car lot.

Gonzales denied crashing the auto and was quoted as saying: "I didn't know there were guard rails in Golden Gate park." He was booked in Redwood City and turned over to San Francisco police.

'ICE CREAM MAN' CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL PEDDLING

Children in the Westlake area went without ice cream Wednesday afternoon after the arrest of the "ice cream man." Donald Wayne Lester, 29, 131 Wyandotte street, was charged with operating in Daly City without a solicitor's license.

Complainant, License Collector Martin Strubel, said that he had warned Lester Tuesday to stop selling ice cream until a permit was gained. Strubel reported he also warned Lester's employer, the president of the Circus Ice Cream company.

On Wednesday afternoon, however, Strubel spotted the truck in operation on Southgate avenue and ordered Lester to the city jail for booking. The ice cream man was later released after paying $25 bail and purchasing a solicitor's permit.

Two Jeff Grads Attend Utah University

Two graduates of Jefferson Union High school are now attending Brigham Young university, according to official figures released today by school authorities.

Those now enrolled for winter quarter from here are John Geertsen and Warren Loose, Jr.

here in 1954.

Police said that William Jacka, 820 Humboldt road, Brisbane, gave a bum check to Lucca's market in payment for two sacks of feed. Complainant was Thomas J. Stangheini, owner of the market.

Sentence will be handed down by Judge Thomas L. Bocci of municipal court.

The Town Record

Vista, Daly City, was one of the first persons on the scene when two San Francisco tots fell into a quarry Tuesday.

Lencioni, a driver for a local florist, used his vehicle to pull away a fence so that rescuers could reach the children.

Then, putting his sweater under the child's head, he helped carry the small boy up the incline with an unidentified passer-by.

Double Feature: For some unknown reason, the loudspeaker system in the council chambers was picking up the police radio calls Monday night.

In the midst of official oratory, the audience was treated to some radio crime detection.

Last year when informed that JAMES MCKAY of Broadmoor might run against him, Congressman J. ARTHUR YOUNGER said, "Good, I'll pay his filing fee."

Possibility that McKay would get the endorsement seemed remote at that time.

We wonder if Younger's offer still stands.

In last week's story on the San Francisco City golf tournament, we forgot to mention one of the competitors was ROY HART, who ought to qualify as a Daly City resident, having lived here 46 years.

EDWARD D. MORGAN, who will assume the superintendent's post in the Jefferson High school district at the end of this term, was much in demand in his previous place of employment in Dinuba. Besides being an active leader in some half dozen civic groups, Morgan served as superintendent of both a high school and elementary school district.

He held the high school post first, and so impressed was the elementary district, that they sought his services. Unable to enforce him away from the high school, they worked out an arrangement where he served as superintendent for both districts.

And they say he served two masters well.

General Pershing News

Mrs. Hoover - Fourth Grade
The fourth grades of General Pershing enjoyed a trip to Chinatown. They visited the Kong Chow Temple, the telephone exchange and the statue of Sun-Yat-Sen. They shopped in the stores and observed the different types of materials the Chinese have and sell.

Miss Chase - First Grade
The first grade in Room 16 is studying helpers. We have seen films, drawn pictures, and a policeman came to tell us about crossing streets, safety rules and helping others.

Miss Laury - Sixth Grade
Miss Laury took us to the planetarium and De Young Museum. We have seen many movies about the stars and found them very interesting to study.

We also saw a movie called "Amazon Awakens." We have been studying about South America and are starting to make South American masks.

Last week we got some new library books. Some of them are: The Adventures of Xenophon; Tall Tale America; Little Maid of Quebec; Canadian Summer; A Dream of Sadler's Wells. We all like them very much and are trying to read as many as we can.

LODGE DRUNK DRIVE COUNT AGAINST SF BUS DRIVER HERE

A 55-year-old San Francisco bus driver was charged with drunk driving here early Sunday morning after officers said his car rammed into a light pole in the 6400 block of Mission street.

Released on $250 cash bail and scheduled to appear in municipal court on March 15 is Leo Alexander Vayssie, 1095 Hampshire street, San Francisco.

Officers reported that they apprehended the bus driver after the accident when he was parking his auto on Theta street. He fell to the pavement when alighting from his car, police said. A sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital proved positive.

A CENSUS FOR OUR BIRTHDAY

Last time the census came around, Daly City had a population of 3,951. That was in 1954.

Monday night the city council called for another special census for this year, and it is estimated that the population will hit 30,000.

Two weeks from today, March 18, Daly City will have reached its 45th birthday.

On March 18, 1911, the 2000 residents of Daly City voted to incorporate—by the scant margin of two votes.

If the next census shows Daly City's population to be 30,000, that will mean the city has increased its population by 15 times in 45 years. Some cities may equal that record of growth, but few can exceed it.

Should Daly City's population hit 30,000, it would rank this municipality as third largest in San Mateo county, right behind San Mateo and Redwood City.

Where Daly City was once looked upon as a small dairy settlement, today it looms as a power in the political and economic voice of San Mateo county.

Daly City has every right to be proud of its growth. And reaching the 30,000 population milestone is an appropriate way to observe the city's 45th birthday.

At 45, Daly City is still a growing youngster.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Lobbying' Interests in State Attacked by Local Democrat

Dear Editor:
The Grand Jury report just released includes a resolution urging an amendment to the State Education Code prohibiting school officers and teachers from acting as agents in the purchase of school supplies.

On August 12, 1952, I forwarded copy of the following Washington state statute to the then Republican Assemblyman, Dan Creedon: RCW 28.58.290 Pecuniary interest in contracts forbidden. It shall be unlawful for any school director to have any pecuniary interest, directly or indirectly, in the purchase of school sites or in the erection of schoolhouses or in the warming, ventilating, furnishing, repairing, or insuring thereof, or to be in any manner interested or connected with the furnishing of supplies for the maintenance of schools, or to receive or accept any compensation or reward for services rendered as director or to be employed for hire by the district or by any person having a contract with the district.

I suggested that it was stronger in the California law, that it be introduced by him and that the bill should be extended to cover trustees, teachers and employees.

"No Answer"

The suggested statute lacked a legislative sponsor as, for the past several years, San Mateo has been presented by legislators more interested in particular lobbies than worthwhile legislation. I never received an answer to my letter or apparently the Republican Assemblyman was more interested in ying the groundwork to succeed in his beer lobbyist than in sponsoring worthwhile legislation. The voters of this county should be due recognition of the close association of all our Republican legislative representatives in state and national government with professional lobbyists. These include, specifically, close association with the Southern Pacific Railroad lobbyist in Sacramento, Dan Love; beer lobbyist, ex-Republican assemblyman "Danny-boy" Creedon; and the PG&E lobbyist in Washington.

In the past the railroad lobbyist has been active in Congressman Crenshaw's campaign. Creedon and the Congressman ran as joint enemies of the Republican Party along with Senator Parkman, friend of the horse-racing and poker playing interests) and Assemblyman Dick Dolwig (protector of the real estate interest), and they show their lobbyist interests ther by special interest bills or committee endorsement of their friends. Unfortunately, copies of special interest bills are not readily made available to San Mateo citizens but these are matters of public record along with the committee hearings.

"High-Handed Manner"
San Mateo county has not had and will not have free and unbiased legislative representatives so long as the inner clique of the Republican Assembly continues in its high-handed manner.

Even now, the build up is on for Hugh Wayne, the presumptive heir of the inner clique. This tall, bearded, young man is being photographed from the North County line to the South County line and is being closely attended by Congressman Younger's San Mateo representative. There is no freedom of choice for the Republicans in the selection of their candidates, and the voter is overwhelmed by the billboards and lavish display of the choices of the lobbyists.

The voter should closely associate these Republican candidates with "Danny-boy" Creedon, remembering that Creedon succeeded Artie Samish.

The following quotation from "Business Week" of November 13, 1954, shows the present power "Danny-boy" Creedon inherited directly from Samish:

"In exerting his influence with politicians, Samish had two strings to his bow. One was money, lots of it, from his few but well-heeled clients." The other bowstring was his control of billboards. As the agent of all the breweries Samish was the biggest single customer of the outdoor advertising industry. And an important customer has a lot of say about who gets which boards. A candidate who ran for office—any office—without Samish's blessing stood the risk of getting no billboards at any price."

Has San Mateo county been voting billboard candidates for Artie Samish? Will it vote for the billboard candidates of "Danny-boy" Creedon?

Very truly yours,
James T. McKay

Democratic Central Committee

"TRINDIANS" course is only one of the many facets of the YWCA program in Daly City. Three divisions of the program, "Time Out for Mom," "Wednesday in Westlake," and the "Trindians," offer opportunities for young women of the

YWCA Activities Expand With Growth Of Daly City

Editor's note: This is the fifteenth of a series of articles on local women's organizations. THE RECORD will feature one of the groups listed in our files each week.

Growing with the population of this area, the program of the YWCA for Northern San Mateo county has expanded in three directions this past year.

Young women and girls of the community are actively participating, meeting new friends and exploring new interests with "Time Out for Mom," "Wednesday in Westlake," and the "Trindians."

"Time Out for Mom" came into being last year following requests from young women living in Daly City for the YWCA to bring activities to their area and thereby eliminate the long hours traveling to the downtown center. Starting out with a small group of young married women under the leadership of Mrs. J. P. Hoffer, 41 Park Plaza drive, the group has grown to a membership of 33 in less than one year.

Programs have included outside speakers and a series on Christmas crafts, interior decoration, millinery, painting and now bridge instruction. The club meets every Monday night from 8 to 10 p.m. in the Olympia School—a night out for mom while father baby-sits.

Officers of the club are Mrs. R. E. Henry, 101 Alexander avenue, and Mrs. J. E. Cincotta, 88 Brooklawn avenue.

The newest YWCA fledgling, just two months old, is "Wednesday in Westlake." Some of the young women wanted their free time during the day so a daytime program was organized with a supervised nursery to care for young children age 2 to 5 years, while their mothers took part in interesting activities. This program, each Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., takes place in the new recreation center in Westlake. It gives young mothers a chance to take a holiday from housework and have a little fun as well as improve themselves, without having to hire a baby sitter.

Thus far the group has enjoyed a charm series on self-improvement, and now are following it with exercises to trim their figures in preparation for wearing summer play clothes. The trindians class will be given by Mrs. Ruth Geiger, YWCA instructor in the health education department. After the morning session the girls gather for lunch and a guest speaker. From 1 to 2 p.m. they presently are engaged in making toys for the nursery.

Officers elected recently are Mrs. Rudolph De May, of 80 Weston drive, Mrs. Sam Sklavos, 95 Fairway drive, and Mrs. G. B. Whitehead, 863 Beechwood drive, Colma.

Working with both of these active groups is Miss Pat Tiggard, YWCA staff member, who helps the committees plan and carry out their programs.

Trindian Activities

The "Trindians" is a Y-Teen Club at Jefferson Union High School. Composed of more than 90 young girls, this teenage club meets before school with their advisor, Mrs. Beverly Raab, physical education teacher and school advisor. Together they have planned social activities and service projects. Last spring they gave a highly successful mother-daughter dinner. At Christmas time they entertained children from an orphanage and now are planning another event for the same group.

This is one of the numerous Y-Teen Clubs sponsored by the YWCA throughout the city in schools, homes, and YWCA Centers.

Open To All

All these activities are open to women and girls who are interested in joining. The programs are sponsored by the YWCA which is a Community Chest agency, partially supported by the United Crusade fund drive. Membership dues in the YWCA are only $2 a year for adults, and 75 cents for girls under 17 years.

Backed by 100 years of service and a Christian purpose, the YWCA offers opportunities to all women and girls throughout the United States and in 65 countries abroad. Expanding its program to meet the needs of the community—in this case where transportation and distance demanded that the program be brought to the Daly City community for residents in Northern San Mateo County—is fundamental to the YWCA.

Income Tax Refunds Due Local Citizens

Seventeen Daly City residents are among the more than 60 north peninsula who are in line for refunds on their 1954 income taxes paid to the federal government, the Internal Revenue service disclosed recently.

The refunds range from 60 cents to more than $300. The San Francisco district of the Internal Revenue service has been unable to deliver the refunds because of incorrect addresses. Those on the list should write to the Internal Revenue service, 100 McAllister street, San Francisco, or call at the office in person.

Daly City persons on the list are Harry C. and Gladys A. Ferris, no street address; Leonard L. and Vieta M. Cheever, general delivery; Merilyn and Helen Howard, 611 Hillside boulevard; Guilia Lima, 160 Ashland drive; C. Frank and

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

COLORED TV IN YOUR FUTURE . . . If you have ever felt while watching television that the performers were right with you in the living room . . . you will be convinced that they are, when you acquire a colored television set. Last week we attended a color clinic conducted by KRON-TV for delegates to the ninth Annual Western Radio and Television Conference, and the closed circuit telecast in color made the participants seem so close that we were almost ready to answer them. The program was telecast simultaneously in color as well as black and white, and although we did occasionally glance at the black and white set for comparison, we found our interest was continually drawn to the colored set.

James Day, General Manager of KQED, and chairman of the conference, welcomed the delegates over the closed circuit telecast. He was followed by KRON-TV's General Manager Harold P. See who reported that although locally colored television is still at the experimental level, KRON-TV last year telecast a total of 93 hours in color, and in addition carried 186 hours of network programs in color.

Technical Process

Other members of KRON's staff who spoke included Program Manager Douglas J. Ellesen, Art Director William J. Wagner and Chief Engineer J. L. Berryhill. The latter explained the technical process of reproducing colored television and also stressed the many problems that arise. Assisted by Bonnie Kever who was most "color-genic" with her flaming red hair and brilliant blue dress, the officials demonstrated the effect on the model by changing the colored backgrounds. They also demonstrated and discussed color films and slides from both an art and technical viewpoint. The colors ran the gamut from brilliant hues to soft pastels and included some experimental slides produced by the art department.

Altogether it was a most impressive demonstration and the possibilities for the use of color in television are unlimited. However, there are also many problems, one of the largest being the cost of producing colored programs. A show in color will cost a sponsor about one third more than the identical program would telecast in black and white. Also the equipment required for telecasting in color is considerably more expensive than black and white. For instance, KRON owns only one colored camera and it weighs almost 100 pounds.

Overcome Problems

However, all these problems will eventually be overcome, and colored television will advance as rapidly as black and white. The National Broadcasting Company is making great progress in the field of color telecasting. Recently an announcement was made by NBC of a $6,000,000 expansion program which includes the construction of a second color studio in Burbank, California, which will bring NBC's total investment in the area to more than $13,000,000. In addition next month NBC's station WNBC in Chicago will be telecasting all programs both local and network in color, and will be the first all-color television station in the world.

We would like to suggest to our readers if you haven't seen a colored telecast, plan to visit your dealer soon and watch a program. Some outstanding telecasts in color to be seen over the NBC network and KRON-TV during March include "Censar and Cleopatra" on March 5 at 5 p.m., "Richard III" on March 11, 2:30 p.m. and "Taming of the Shrew" with Maurice Evans and Lilli Palmer on March 18.

Candidate Asks About Westlake Recreation

A candidate for council was assured by the city council Monday night that playground space would be provided in the newly-approved Westlake Subdivision 8B.

Joseph Lewkowicz, local school board trustee and aspirant for a council seat, queried the council as to plans for park facilities in the new section.

"This is an earlier annexation," explained Mayor Joseph Verducci. "But every time you annex then you come up with problems," said Lewkowicz.

"We would like to work for better recreation by getting the school districts to participate with us," answered Verducci. "Since you are a trustee we hope to have your full cooperation."

D.C. Seaman Foiled In Attempted Jump

Robert P. Klugel, 28, 63 Theta street, Daly City, a seaman, was taken to San Francisco hospital for observation after two sailors stopped him from jumping off the San Francisco - Oakland bay bridge early Wednesday.

Sailors Reynolds Daniels, 20, and F. Lowers and highway patrolman Joseph Gleadall grabbed Klugel as he attempted to scramble over the rail. Klugel said he had decided to jump after his wife ordered him to leave their home.

He started across the bridge at 2 a.m. and when his car was midway between Yerba Buena Island and San Francisco, witnesses said, he jumped from his car and crouched at the rail.

Youths "Hold Up" Daly City Market

Two 14-year old Daly City boys were released to the custody of their parents Tuesday after they admitted to police they attempted to "hold up" the B & G Market, 585 Hillside boulevard, Friday.

On being questioned at home, one of the boys said that another boy had given him a BB pistol, and that it looked so real he wanted to try it out. He walked into the market with his companion, displaying the pistol, told the clerk, Mrs. Beatrice Woodward, 300 Citrus avenue, "This is a stick-up, put up your hands. I mean it, get your hands up."

Mrs. Woodward collapsed, and the boys ran out of the store. Another clerk, Charles McGuire, 631 Florence street, who had not been seen by the boys, gave chase up Hillside boulevard, but lost them.

Mrs. Woodward first contacted police Friday, stating that she thought the incident was a prank. However, she reconsidered, and called police again Monday. Police officer James Welsh questioned the gun-toting boy at his home, where the youth confessed.

Cops Trace License Of Hit-Run Driver

A hit and run auto sped down Alameda boulevard Wednesday night after crashing into an oncoming car and injuring a woman passenger. License number of the hit and run vehicle, taken by a witness, is now being traced by police.

Officers said the accident occurred at 8:12 p.m. when an auto, making a right turn from Junipero Serra onto Alameda boulevard, struck the traffic island, hurdled over the double line and crashed into an oncoming car. A "keep to the right" highway sign was knocked down.

Driver of the auto in the hit and run driver's path was Donald E. Umberger, 21, a garage attendant of 1151 Palou drive, Pedro Valley. His mother, Mrs. Maxine Umberger, suffered severe shock and was held at Junipero Serra hospital for observation.

Witness to the collision, R. B. Rhodes of 169 Eastwood drive, San Francisco, sped after the hit and run car but lost officers he lost the vehicle when it turned onto Skyline. Rhodes, however, did get close enough to the car to catch the license number, police said.

Supervisor Callan Formally "Throws Hat In The Ring"

Thomas J. Callan Sr. of Colma, chairman of the San Mateo county board of supervisors, formally announced today that he would seek re-election in the June primary to the post of supervisor. Callan represents the first district, the northern section of the county.

Callan, who was unanimously elected chairman of the board in early January, will be seeking his second four-year term.

Four years ago Callan won a three-man race to fill the vacancy left by retirement of Thomas L. Hickey.

He is a member of the county planning commission, a director of Joint Highway District 10, and a director of the North San Mateo County Sanitation district.

"A greater part of the program which I outlined to the people in my platform four years ago this month has been accomplished. Some is on its way toward accomplishment, and the remainder, I am continuing to push forward as hard as I can for the best interests of the people of the county.

Another belated birthday wish goes to Mrs. Beverly O'Connell of Woodrow who recently celebrated a birthday. A family dinner out helped this gal to celebrate her day.

Crockerites Report

FIRST GRADE - MRS. KOENIG

Crocker first graders have been busy learning about seeds. They have planted seeds and seen that they must have air, water and light to grow into plants. They are very proud of their own nasturtium plants that are growing in their classroom. Now they are learning that seeds have other uses too. They are finding out that we eat foods every day that are made from seeds. On March 8th, the class will visit a bakery to see just how wheat seeds are made into bread and rolls.

Ben Ratcliffe proudly displayed a bean plant to the class that he grew at home from one of the bean seeds he was given in class to examine.

Mrs. Doane, our Room Mother, managed to get many parents to contribute cookies heart candies, and orange soda for another delightful class party on Valentine's Day. After refreshments were served the children were given their own valentine mail bags that were full of valentines. The party ended with gay laughter and happy faces.

SECOND GRADE
MRS. MALONE

January and February have been busy months for our class. We've been writing "Our News" every day. At the end of the week we have our daily news mimeographed. After we draw pictures under the news items. We save each week's news until we have a whole month, then we staple the news together and take the paper home. Our mothers and fathers have a chance to hear us read, as well as an opportunity to find out what we are doing in class.

We made fancy red valentines with our pictures inside, for our parents. Our parents gave us a wonderful valentine's party at school. We had ice cream, cup cakes, suckers and orange ade. Mrs. Keith, our Room Mother, is very cooperative and thoughtful. We also saw cartoon films on February 14.

At the present time we are making paper mache and clay animals. When the animals are finished we are going to make a pet shop. Next week, we are planning to visit a pet shop. We are studying about the care of pets.

We welcomed Raymond Valencia back to school today. He has been absent three weeks after having had his appendix removed. We are happy he is back.

Safety News

Wilful disregard for traffic signs and signals by motorists and pedestrians has spelled disaster for many a person and has kept our annual traffic toll at an alarmingly high figure.

This statement was made by Chief R. A. Petrochi of the Daly City police department.

While we cannot determine just how many of the traffic accidents on our streets and highways can be traced to disregard for traffic signs and signals, he said, we do know and can prove that there is a close tie in between traffic violations and traffic accidents.

Chief Petrochi said that some of the more common violations accounting for traffic accidents are exceeding the posted speed limit, improper passing, failure to keep to the right of the center line, failure to yield the right of way, and disregard of stop warning signs.

Traffic signs and signals represent the expert planning of well-skilled and experienced persons in safety know how, he said. They are designed to protect human life on our streets and highways, but unless they are heeded faithfully, they will prove of little avail in preventing accidents to motorists and pedestrians.

Pointing out that several studies of motorists' behavior at traffic signs indicated an alarming laxity in consistently obeying traffic signs, particularly stop signs, he said, that the major purpose is to cut down on traffic accidents by indoctrinating motorists and pedestrians with the necessity for strictly observing these Signs of Life.

The driver or walker who deliberately flouts the law by disobeying traffic signs can be exceedingly dangerous to himself and to others, he said, and we must make him realize that these Signs of Life are meant to protect him and others in modern traffic.

Big First Inning Gives Balboa Bucs 10-2 Win Over Jeffs in Diamond Debut

If the first inning of the 1956 baseball season is any indication of things to come for Coach Lou Martin's Jefferson High school baseball club, it'll be a rough three months.

In their opening practice engagement Friday with Balboa, the Indians were drubbed, 10-2, and they gave up eight of the runs in the first inning.

Tex Prentice, one of Jeffs regulars last year, drew the starting pitching assignment and probably wished he hadn't. Prentice gave up four singles, four walks and hit one batter, all in the short space of the first inning as the Bucs pushed across eight runs.

Tex settled down after that, but when he was relieved in the fifth inning Balboa held a fat 10-0 lead.

Ed Leveoni, frosh-soph twirler in 1955, took over on the mound in the fifth and allowed only two hits, walking none and striking out three.

Jefferson could muster only three hits, singles by Ino Patron and Mike Wedlake, and a double in the fifth frame by Leroy Franzola that scored all the Indian runs, after Bob Grubb and Darrell Hall had walked.

In Prentice's initial four innings on the hill, he gave up eight hits, walked seven and struck out three batters. If the first inning could be forgotten, it was actually a close ball game.

Tuesday's practice encounter with Mission went for three innings, and was then called off because of rain.

The score stood at 1-0, Mission's favor, when the game closed but the one run was protested by Mission. The umpire called a third strike on a Mission batter, then changed his decision and said it was a foul tip. On the next pitch the batter singled, driving in the run.

The Indians will try to reverse their loss to Balboa today (Friday) when they meet the Bucs at the San Francisco field at 3:15 p.m.

Next Wednesday the Daily City club travels to Poly, and visits Oakland on Friday.

Next home game is against Burlingame on March 13.

Defending Champ Frosh-Soph 9 Nips Capuchino, 2-1

Coach Byron Val Alstyne's Jefferson High school frosh-soph baseball club, co-holders of the PAL championship last year, opened the season with a victory Wednesday, as they edged Capuchino, 2-1, in a practice tilt.

Trailing, 1-0, in the final frame, the Indians tied it up after Bill Schoenfeldt, who had doubled, was knocked in by Tony Stagnaro's single. Don Anderson hit a single to drive home Stagnaro for the winning tally.

Paul Tapia worked the first four innings on the mound, giving up five hits and one run, striking out eight batters. Gary Ryan was credited with the win, pitching no-hit, no-run ball for the final three frames and whiffing two batsmen.

The frosh-soph will face Lowell here this Friday, and host Sacred Heart next Wednesday, Sequia Friday.

League play opens March 15 against Burlingame at the Panther diamond.

Jeff Cagers Receive All-NPAL Mention

Darrell Hutchinson and Larry Pottinger, Jefferson high school varsity cagers, received honorable mention on the NPAL all-star team.

Hutchinson, a senior forward, was the Indians' best scorer, and fifth best in the league with 134 points. Pottinger, a junior, was eighth among league scorers with 105 points.

Two Jeff lightweights also received honorable mention on the NPAL all-star '30s squad. Barrie Haanan and Puzzy Firth were the Indians' 30s forward. Haanan was the league's 10th best scorer with 77 points, while Firth was 11th with 76.

JEFF GOLFERS IN RE-MATCH TUESDAY WITH SF'S LINCOLN

Jefferson High school's golf team will meet Lincoln of San Francisco in a re-match Tuesday at Lake Merced, after being rained out of their initial contest this Tuesday.

Making up the first six for Jeff are lettermen Dick Stookey, Wayne Guisti, Al Harris, and newcomers Jim Giblin, Stan Weld and Steve Opperman. Also on the team are Jack Klinger and Mike Brush.

Guisti and Harris loom as the outstanding prospects on Coach Mike Orlich's links club, both shooting in the high 70s.

Matches will be held every Tuesday commencing next week and league competition opens March 20, with the Indians hosting Sequia at Lake Merced.

San Mateo Sheriffs First in Pistol Shoot

With team captain Ray Ottoboni setting a new range record for rapid fire score, the San Mateo county sheriff's pistol team won the first match of the 1956 season Sunday at Colma's Ottoboni range.

The sheriffs shot 1125, while the South San Francisco police took second with 1015, and the Broadmoor police were third with 975. Ottoboni shot 97 out of 100 for his new range record. Leading the victorious sheriffs team was Bill Martin with 280 out of 300, high for the match. Al Heat and A. C. Clayton were the other members of the winning team. In all, 14 teams competed.

The San Mateo sheriff's next match will be Sunday at the Oakland police pistol shoot held at the Oakland police range. Firing will start at 9:30 a.m. This year the sheriffs team will compete in matches all over the state and in Nevada.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

While most of us were busy putting towels on windows sills to catch the leaks during the last storm, Berta and Ed Macklin were worrying lest they get too much sun. Those lucky two were at Acapulco for a week, luxuriating in dinner dances, sunshine, boat rides, swimming and doing nothing! They stayed at the Palazzo Tropical hotel, and Berta said everything was superb and the beach was wonderful and the weather was heavenly. She and Ed came back to the Village Lane laden with Mexican hats, silver and baskets, and a hint of a suntan. They were careful—seems people down that way were getting too sunburned for comfort. When we called, all five Macklins were busy trying on snow-weather clothes, in preparation for a trip north. Tune in next week for the second installment of the Macklin family and their adventures!

Traveling is catching. Down Stewart way, Jean Bertkins will be saying goodbye to her sister, Shirley Cain, who has been visiting some months with Jean while her husband, Bud, has been involved with Navy duties in San Diego. The Cains will be on their way to Virginia and duty for Bud as a gunnery instructor. They plan to visit Jean's mother in Chicago and Bud's in Gainesville, Georgia, on the way east. Shirley tells us Virginia Beach will be near at hand to offer an Atlantic variety of suntan.

"Party-Happy"
Louvaine is still party-happy! Jan Rizzo became proud possessor of that so-important 4th year, and the celebration involved many friends—and their mothers! Beth Lichtenberg, Cal Courtney, Gregory Florio, Stephanie Gantert, Patty Warmoth, Pip Mattison, Kevin Whitehead, cousin Maria Rizzo, and brother Johnny Rizzo were Jan's guests for ice cream and you-know-what, and mother Janet had the coffee pot ready for the mothers of the crowd.

Seems that out of the 28 young ones enrolled at the Village Play school, only 5 are girls! This gives Leap Year a good start, but the odds are a little uneven. Anyhow, things have been sort of balanced by the arrival of four new young ladies in the Villages. Mrs. Stork must have taken over again!

Helen and Tom Keyes on Larchmont have added a third daughter to their family. Little 6 lb. Cynthia is the center of attraction for Vickie, Kathy and lone brother Tommy, who is sort of overwhelmed with sisters at the moment!... The Husers are currently busy being proud grandparents over on Nimitz. Daughter Wanda and son Dan now have a very new, very special first baby, Jodie Sherree. She was so tiny she had to stay in the hospital a little while longer than usual, but she's home now and gaining at a great rate.

Thornhill welcomed a new little miss, too. Carla Maria Corley is 7 lbs., 3 ozs. of small baby for brothers Bruce Patrick and Joe Francis to brag about. Of course, parents Andora and Bruce think she's wonderful, too. ... Larchmont was lucky—two new babies. Rebel Joy Pattison is the second one, with Fred and Avis keeping busy with feedings, washing, etc., etc. Small brother Jack thinks it's all pretty nice—he has a new baby sister to love, but none of the work! Incidentally, Avis named Rebel for a Texas college friend of hers. We wonder if her first words will be "You-all!"

"Puss In Boots"
It was to bad that the play, "Puss In Boots," sponsored by the coordinating committee of all the local PTAs, didn't have better attendance. It was a thoroughly delightful thing, with excellent costumes and colors. The acting was first rate, and the scenery-changing, with all the costumed actors in a fever of newspaper-collecting, so do them and yourself a favor at the same time and have the papers ready. If you won't be home, leave them outside on the porch or something.

Gordon Feist is back home on Sweetwood after a week in the hospital. His back was giving him trouble again, but a series of treatments is helping. He's sort of going back to work by degrees, and will have to take it easy for a while, but things are looking up, for which everyone's glad.

Erda Branstetter had two musical evenings at her home on Garden Lane recently when her pupils gave recitals for parents and friends. Young Villagers taking part in the program were Steven Elliott, Carol Ann Lewis, Marilyn Lewis, Jane Miller, Margaret and Ann Mori, Diane Coldin, Joyce Shanoian, Norma Ann Vladicka, Laurel Klaisner, and Ardis and Diane Branstetter. Ex-Broadmoorites Carolyn and Ronald Rose came up from San Bruno for the occasion, too.

Fourth Birthday
Not to be outdone by the feminine birthday contingent, Mike Northrop of Stewart Avenue thought a fourth birthday important enough for a luncheon party. Forwith, he pressed mother Peggy into service, and entertained Mario Rizzo, Chris Goodner, Raymond Thompson, Johnny Skillman, and, of course, brother Jimmy and sister Barbara. Highlight of the day for Mike was that new, shiny 2-wheel bicycle. Happy day!

Brightest sight around is Stetters' new orange station wagon. Kind of helps to see it going by when the day is rainy and gray. One thing's for sure—you'll always know when Hilda and Herb and the kids went thataway!

The total of new little girl Villagers we gave at the beginning of this column must now be changed to five. At this point, we learned that Edythe and Emile Fanfelle have welcomed 8 lb., 14 oz. Janie to their family. Now there are four little Fanfelles on MacArthur, all young ladies. Judy, Ellen and Joane are all reveling in the role of big sister.

Camping Trip
Clarence Lair took some eight or so members of Explorer Troops 84 and 129 to Camp Pomponio for an overnight camping trip awhile back. As has been happening lately, it rained, which doesn't make for much fun when camping. They did run into Ken Hansen, though, ex-Villager who now lives and works at the camp. We're willing to bet that Villagers en route to the moon will be welcomed by other Villagers who somehow got there first!

Car Boosters Get Pair Of $25 Hub Caps
That wave of car boosting that has plagued Daly City spread to Broadmoor last week. Hayden Hamilton, 707 Maddux drive, reported to Broadmoor police Friday morning that two hub caps, valued at $25 each, had been stolen from his automobile which was parked overnight in front of his home.

Girl Scouts To Start Cookie Sale

Approximately 275 Girl Scouts: Brownies, Scouts and Mariners, will participate in the eleventh annual Girl Scout Cookie sale beginning March 2 and continuing through March 11.

This sale has a twofold purpose: one, to raise money to supplement funds received from the Community Chest or United Crusades of this community, to provide capital funds for day, troop and established camps plus incidentals; two, the Girl Scout organization believes that it is desirable for Girl Scout troops to have experience of raising and spending money, since learning to handle funds carefully is part of a Girl Scout's education.

This year's sale will include sandwich type cookies, as well as the new lemon thin cookies and unit nut packs of one can of peanuts and one can of mixed nuts. Each girl will be expected to sell 12 boxes of cookies and 6 units of nuts. Several stands will be manned by Girl Scouts for the convenience of those people who do not know or live near any girl scouts.

A booth in King's Market will be staffed by Girl Scout Troops 183, 150, 222, 112, 219, 85, 280, 81, 129 and 24. The girls will sell in King's on Friday and Saturday and on March 9 and 10. On Friday, March 9, Troops 13, 276 and 27 will sell at the Bank of America in Colma. Mariners will sell at the Lion's Club luncheon.

Window displays will be in Shaw's candy store and Elliot Cleaners in the Broadmoor Shopping area. In these windows will be the prize winning table decorations from the Father and Daughter dinners held this week.

"Keep Daly City In Business"

An Informed Public
The Key To Intelligent Government

"Keep Daly City in Business" is Mayor Joseph Verducci's campaign slogan. After reading this and the following messages from the mayor, you will see why it is imperative that his business and administrative ability be retained to serve citizens of this rapidly-growing community.

Part II, Public Works

BEFORE In 1952 Daly City had no engineering department, while street department consisted of a superintendent, two maintenance men. Equipment included four light trucks, a sweeper, a compressor and an oil spray tank trailer. It is a fact that on occasion the street workers had to bring their own shovels from home to handle a minor street repair job.

AFTER An engineering department is staffed by a director of public works, and three engineering aides. Field survey equipment, drafting tables and a filing system bring facilities up to date. The street department now has 13 full-time employees. Equipment has been augmented to include a patrol grader, payload, 10-ton tandem roller, patching roller, traffic striper, street flusher, and other miscellaneous equipment necessary for a city of approximately 27,000 population. In a recent flood, homes of several citizens were saved by use of the heavy equipment purchased.

FUTURE By comparison with cities of similar size in San Mateo county, Daly City still needs further equipment. By wise spending, under technical direction of the Public Works Director, the city hopes to bring its public works department to a point where it can handle major projects, thus saving taxpayers costs of contracting out jobs. A major street improvement program has already been drawn up.

COSTS Last year the city's tax rate was increased by five cents, or about $1.50 a year for each home-owner. Yet in that one year's period capital improvements were made and new personnel hired with a combined value of nearly $200,000. Services have nearly doubled since Verducci took office, while taxes have risen less than 10 per cent.

Two For Tonight

With "Carousel," the film version of Rogers and Hammerstein's musical play, going round and round at the Fox, it looks as though the theater managers are back on the merry-go-round. It's probably hard on a lot of them, trying to keep up with the latest improvements in the wide-screen processes, but it certainly isn't hard on the audience, who can sit back and enjoy a beautiful screen adaptation of the bittersweet story of Billy a carnival barker (Gordon MacRae) and Julie a wide-eyed innocent (Shirley Jones) who marries him.

When Billy finds out he is to become a father, he joins Jigger (Cameron Mitchell) in a holdup, bungles the job and is accidentally killed. He spends his first fifteen years in heaven without having taken advantage of his right to return to earth for one day, not even looking down to see how Julie and Louise his daughter (Susan Lucci) are making out. It is at this point the story begins and the above is told in a flashback.

Earth Revisited

Somewhat reluctantly he accepts the Starkeeper's (Gene Lockhart) offer to watch his daughter. When he sees that his career and untidy death have thrown a shadow across her life, he revisits earth, brushes lightly across his family's life and with the aid of the Starkeeper smooths Louise's path.

Based on Molnar's "Lilium," part of "Carousel's" charm is that it pictures the past and the future, enabling us to return for a brief time to the security of the former and speculate a little on what it will be like in the hereafter. With the change in locale from Molnar's Budapest to Maine, there is quite a difference in mood and this is beautifully developed in the scenes of old time Maine and the hereafter.

Maybe the days of the little red school house weren't quite as we like to imagine they were, but no one can see the graduation scene without feeling a loss at having missed that era.

Beautiful Ballet

There is inevitably a certain amount of whimsy when the world that is to come is portrayed. We see the world beyond as a place where there will be work and from which we will be able to watch earth. When we first meet Billy he is busily dusting stars outside the Starkeeper's office, which is furnished with a rolltop desk and a convenient wastebasket for damaged stars.

Clara Mae Turner, Barbara Ruick and Robert Rounseville are in the cast and join MacRae and Shirley Jones in the big musical numbers. Susan Lucci, the daughter, appears in a beautiful ballet which symbolizes her unhappiness and in it Jacques D'Amboise is his usual spectacular dancing self.

As for the screen process, well, there is some distortion and fuzziness from time to time but don't let that stop you from seeing one of the year's great musicals.

SF Resident Rushed To Hospital From DC Home

A San Francisco man was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital Sunday morning by police ambulance after he was reported ill at a Daly City residence.

Police said that Martin Beklin, 57, 807 Gough street, apartment 46, San Francisco, suffered either indigestion or a mild heart attack. Beklin fell ill at 1048 Brunswick street.

News of Your Local Library

Two of the three books which recently won prizes in the field of fiction, non-fiction, and poetry as outstanding works by Americans are available at the Daly City public library. The library has John O'Hara's "Ten North Frederick" and W. H. Auden's "The Shield of Achilles," winners of the fiction and poetry National Book awards, just announced in New York. The non-fiction winner, Herbert Kubly's "American In Italy," is available to Daly City readers through our interlibrary loan service, as are most other books not on the Daly City public library's shelves.

O'Hara has written such widely read books as "A Rage To Live" and "The Farmers Hotel." He also wrote the book for the musical comedy hit, "Pal Joey." The 1955 fiction award was made to "Ten North Frederick" for its "emotional depth and moral conviction." The novel was described by the judges as "a forthright, trenchant and total picture of an American man, his family and his town" and a "masterpiece of construction."

The non-fiction judges said "American In Italy" had "a fine balance of humor, pathos and understanding of the people of another nation" while the poetry judges termed Auden's "The Shield of Achilles" "intelligent, agile, full and large; always original and to the point; never lacking in wit, both sacred and profane."

The National Book awards, which were first made in 1950, are sponsored by the American Book Publishers council, the American Booksellers association, and the Book Manufacturers' institute. Winners were selected by independent panels of judges in each of the three categories.

The American Library association also has its annual list of notable books. This year's list consists of 46 titles, just announced, of which twenty-five are available at the Daly City public library. Any titles on the list which are not in the library's collection can be obtained through interlibrary loan from the San Mateo county free library or from the California state library.

Among the notable books of 1955, chosen for sincerity and honesty of presentation, factual correctness, literary excellence, and contribution to man's understanding of himself and the times in which he lives, are the following: "The World of Albert Schweitzer," by Erica Anderson, a magnificent book consisting largely of Miss Anderson's fine photographs; Jim Bishop's "The Day Lincoln Was Shot;" "The New Dimensions of Peace," by Chester Bowles, former U. S. Ambassador to India; "America's Music from the Pilgrims to the Present," by Gilbert Chase; "Inside Africa," by John Gunther, a thorough, factual account of conditions all over the dark continent; Will Herberg's "Protestant, Catholic, Jew," subtitled "An Essay in American Religious Sociology;" "The World We Live In," a compilation of the popular Life magazine articles, profusely illustrated in color; G. R. Millar's "A Crossbowman's Story of the First Exploration of the Amazon;" Zoe Oldenbourg's "The Cornerstone," one of the two novels to be selected for the notable books list; and Walter White's posthumous "How Far the Promised Land?"

To reserve any of the books listed above, or any others you may want to read, stop at the Daly City public library, 6351 Mission street, or phone PLaza 5-0850. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

Many departments and methods are the same today as they were in 1940, when Daly City's population was less than half of the present 28,000. Even my brief experience on the personnel board has shown me, for instance, the inadequacy of many of our city job classifications. The 'temporary job' is abused, so that a temporary employee may be on the payroll for years. Many new positions and classifications should be created, many eliminated.

Operation of our government should meet current conditions and population. I will work to bring the ordinances and methods up to date to eliminate inefficiency and inequities.

County Grand Jury Closes With Report

The 1955-56 San Mateo county grand jury wound up its activities recently with publishing of a 50-page report covering its investigations.

Highlighting the jury's probes during the year was the investigation into the office of County Manager Robert Stallings. In asking censure of Stallings by the county board of supervisors, the jury alleged that Stallings had awarded contract for county jobs in excess of $2000 without calling for bids and had made purchases without proper requisitions.

One of the first acts of the grand jury was to order an audit of all county offices. The jury also recommended that the offices of county treasurer and tax collector be consolidated.

The jury pointed to the fact that incidence of crime in the county was lower in 1955 than it has been for many years.

Only two criminal indictments were delivered by the jury, two of which were against the same defendant, Alta Anderson of Broadmoor, alleged abortionist.

MR. AND MRS. RAY COOL, 7144 Mission street, Daly City, recently spent a winter holiday in Reno enjoying the popular

Joseph Verducci

"Keep Daly City in Business."

Mayor Joseph Verducci's campaign slogan is not just another empty advertising boast.

"When a municipal corporation operates on a million-dollar budget," the council isn't up there just to play politics," said Mayor Verducci. "That's why I was active in working for the city manager form of government," he said. "Big business concerns don't entrust their finances to amateurs. Neither does a city that knows where it's going."

He cited the public works department as a major achievement reached through the professional advice of the city manager.

"Four years ago there were three employees in the street department. There were actual instances when men had to go home and get their own brooms or shovels to handle a minor clean-up project."

"Today, with a staff of 13 men, the street department can not only cope with minor repair jobs, but can handle major projects," he explained.

"In 1952," he continued, "We had no engineering department. As a result, the city was the victim of poor planning and slipshod approval of commercial construction. Now we have a four-man engineering staff watching over all municipal and private building. The dividends for the public have been evidenced already, and will continue to be reaped because the operation of our city has been put on a professional basis."

He related the recent instance where several homes on E. Vista avenue were threatened with destruction by an avalanche of mud. "As a result of professional knowledge and presence of adequate equipment, we were able to cope with the problem and save the homes."

"These are the kind of dividends a municipal corporation realizes when it is run by competency," he added.

"And because I have worked to put Daly City on a business-like basis, we are enjoying greater services without paying prohibitive taxes," he said.

"No one can dispute the facts. Daly City is finally in business. Let's keep it that way."

Joseph Lewkowicz

Have we forgotten our loyal servants—fire department, police department, and water department, also our office workers? This issue is never thought about or never brought about in any issue.

I don't believe in election pat on the back or kissing babies during the heat of election. I believe in due justice for good work well done all the time where good judgment and savings and good service to the taxpayers. I don't believe in unnecessary taxing to offset unnecessary expenditures or duplication of work. Let the people be represented at all times and judgment by not one but judgment in decisions by voice and action for all. I believe that in this way harmony between departments and council is at its best, and remember if you, the public, don't attend some or all the council meetings, you are not doing your city any justice. You are helping a few control their wishes on you. Let's remember yesterday, think

Edward J. Dennis

Councilman Edward J. Dennis today expressed his sincere appreciation to the more than 200 citizens who have voluntarily endorsed his candidacy for re-election to the council.

The citizens rallying to Dennis' campaign include representatives of labor, business, the professions and housewives.

Serving as a full-time labor official for the past 10 years, Dennis is consistently a popular candidate with union personnel, but has also won the respect and admiration of persons in all other fields of endeavor.

Dennis gave as evidence of his sense of fair play to all segments of the community, his voting record on past issues: Voted to grant civil service employees limited full pay in the event of disability while on city work; voted against paying a subsidy to the city of San Francisco for transportation; voted for the present form of intra-city transportation, thus encouraging private business and providing new jobs at no cost to the taxpayers; voted against the attempt to downgrade our present electrical code, thus protecting the homebuyer; voted to re-instate David H. Johnson Jr. as recommended by the personnel board; voted against moving city assessment to Redwood City, thereby retaining local autonomy; consistently voted for reasonable salary increases and better working conditions; voted for increased library facilities; voted for new fire, police, street and water department equipment, allowing workers to do a more efficient job for the taxpayers' benefit.

In view of this outstanding record the following labor representatives have been appointed to head the "Dennis labor committee": Tony A. Ricci, Walter J. Gillies, Michael V. Fahey, Phillip D. Thorpe, Claude Fitch, Miss Helen Wheeler, Joseph Gregory and Jack P. Elmore.

During the past week, countless supporters of my candidacy for the office of Treasurer of the City of Daly City have been telling me to "Get in there and fight!"—meaning, of course, that the incumbent and myself should put up our dukes and get to it!

Frankly, it seems that my opponent is in a different "Ring" entirely and that his blows are aimed not in defense of his position as Treasurer, but in a vicious offense against other city officials—all, like himself, duly elected by you, the people.

If "To get in there and fight" means using you, the voters, as sparring partners in preparation for a main bout which leaves just one person the winner—then count me out!

I want the job of Treasurer of Daly City! If elected, I will devote my full time and energies to serving you through that job!

The "decision" will, I hope, be yours on April 10!

today and look to tomorrow for equal representation for all of Daly City is my aim. An old quotation, "One for all, All for one," I propose a New Deal, No Deals.

Sam Grado

What I want for Daly City:

1. An active and well coordinated Civil Defense Program in which each person is informed of their specific duties and activities in case of emergency.

2. Further development of the Park and Recreation Program to take care of the growing needs of the city.

3. Completion of the War Memorial Building to utilize its full facilities within the city budget.

4. A functioning harmonious City Government to carry out the needs and desires of the electorate.

5. Cooperation of city and school authorities to obtain State and Federal assistance in order to establish adequate schools for our rapidly growing population.

6. Wider and well maintained streets which have suffered from our worst winter on record.

These are things I would like to work for and get for the electorate and I believe I would be successful in doing so. Having carried arms in defense of my country, I certainly don't want to be prepared if an enemy attacked my home. Having been an active business man since the war, I know the value of a dollar and don't want to see the people short-changed. It is important to give them the very best for each tax dollar the city spends.

I am interested in my city. This is well known by all who have come in contact with me for I have been a volunteer fireman for many years and still serve in the capacity of Captain of Company 6.

In short, I want the best for Daly City. A government "of the people, by the people and for the people."

Harry Ross

In any election, it is not only the candidates, but the voters as well, who must face problems and make decisions.

As a business executive, and as owner of Ross Mercantile Company, I know that in order to properly analyze and evaluate a problem, I must search for all available information and then weigh the evidence before I can arrive at a logical decision.

As a basic background for the coming election, we must realize that we are all stockholders in a corporate city with assets or assessed valuation of over 27 millions of dollars.

As shareholders, you and I should vote for directors or councilmen who have proven themselves to be successful in business and who, by virtue of their experience and maturity, are above the pettiness, factionalism and jealousies so often found in local council actions.

It is my responsibility, as a candidate for City Councilman, to present evidence to you as to just

Paul Hupf

Paul Hupf, 34-year-old attorney and civic leader who is a popular choice to fill one of the city council seats, said today that "Modernizing Government" would be a big issue in his campaign.

"I feel sincerely," he said, "That our government is inadequate in many departments and methods. Our government should meet standards of other cities with comparable populations. Yet many methods used are the same as those in practice in 1940, when the population was 12,000, while today's population is nearly 30,000."

A member of the city personnel board, Hupf has had the opportunity to study the situation first hand. "Job classifications are just one example," he said. "Some of the classifications have been on the books for 20 years and do not reflect the change in duties and scope of government. In some instances, new positions should be created, others eliminated."

He said the 90-day temporary job status has been much abused. "The temporary employee is laid off one day, then re-hired. Many have been working on a temporary status for years. Each employee should take the examination and qualify or be removed from the payroll."

Hupf declared, "I will not say that sweeping changes are needed. Only that the city is behind in many of its methods. If elected, I will work conscientiously to determine every instance where methods are inefficient or outmoded. Then I will take steps to correct the problems."

Hupf's campaign chairman, Frank Pacelli, said the young attorney is the type caliber of man who will "Put Ability in City Government."

Hupf, who lives at 648 N. Mayfair with his wife and two daughters, is known for his active and sincere efforts in civic and community affairs.

how your city is managed and what that management costs you, the stockholders; you may then judge my ability and experience in comparison with my opponents. The usual campaign charges of graft and corruption shall not enter into my campaign. I believe that the present incumbents are doing the best that their experience and ability permits; however, a check of their records has disclosed such startling facts of inefficiency and mismanagement, that I have felt compelled to offer my services as a candidate.

During the following weeks, I will, for your information, present these facts of mismanagement and inefficiency; the importance of these facts to you will be determined at the polls on election day.
